MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Logistica Holding Ltd. v. Al Amir Co. for Food Products and Samir Hassan

Docket Number: 09 Civ. 3762 (LMM)

Our File Number: 1870-09

Dear Judge McKenna,

We are attorneys for the Plaintiff in this admiralty action brought pursuant to Supplemental Admiralty Rule B of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. On or about April 15, 2009, the Court issued an Ex Parte Order of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment authorizing process of maritime attachment permitting restraint of Defendants' property in the hands of garnishee banks located within the Southern District of New York.

Today, two wire transfers of Defendants' property were interrupted by HSBC in the amounts of $1,000.00 and $500.00 pursuant to service of the Ex-Parte Order of Attachment and accompanying Writ. We are awaiting confirmation from our clients today that they wish to restrain these funds, in light of the parties' engagement in settlement negotiations. If the funds are restrained, notice of the attachment will be duly sent to the Defendants forthwith, pursuant to the Local Rules.

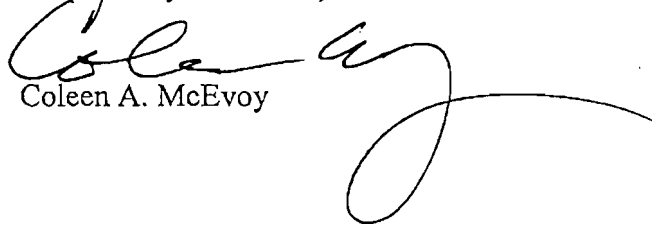

Pursuant to the terms of the Ex Parte Order, Plaintiff may request an extension of the Order for an additional 90 days upon a showing of good cause by the Plaintiff. Since Defendant's funds have been found in the District, if and when such funds are attached, jurisdiction will be obtained over Defendant. Further, it is apparent that Defendant is conducting business through New York banks. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that we be allowed to continue to serve the Process of Maritime Attachment in the hopes of obtaining full security for Plaintiff's claim.

As the Ex Parte Order is set to expire today, August 28, 2009, and Defendant's property has been found in the Southern District of New York, Plaintiff respectfully requests an extension of the Ex Parte Order for 90 days.

Granted. So ordered.
